Dear Madam/Sir,

Oneworld Publications are an independent UK-based publisher of non-fiction, fiction and young adult books worldwide. Our offices are at 10 Bloomsbury Street, London WC1B 3SR.

We have a long-term relationship with Jayvee and Jacob Matthew as one of our main typesetters for many years. We have always found their typesetting incredibly quick, accurate and reasonably priced. Their work on complex titles (including footnotes, endnotes, images, charts and diacritics) has always been impressive. And this has continued with their work successfully supplying us with ebook files (epub, mobi and ePDF). We would certainly recommend them to your organisation.

Yours faithfully,

Paul Nash
