Dear Sir/Ms,

Swales & Willis is a project management company that has been producing books for academic publishers since 1998. We have a long-term relationship with Jayvee and MD Jacob Matthew who have been typesetting our books for at least 10 years. Their work has always been technically sound, quick and very accurate. They have embraced new technologies and now can produce ebooks within xml-first workflows to a very high standard.

I have not hesitation in recommending them to you as an excellent supplier of pre-press services.

With best wishes

Dr Richard Willis

Director
